

DESIGNAPHY

A production powerhouse for your creative team

From cohesive campaign execution to specific assets, we deliver everything your team needs, at the speed your market demands.

When your in-house creatives have the right vision but simply not enough resources to bring it to life, that's where we thrive. Plug our creatives into your processes and watch your backlog disappear.

Monthly Design Plans

Best for straightforward, everyday design projects, where focus is on the execution instead of exploration

Looking to hire a team? Need additional design support?

Say goodbye to hiring inhouse. We're 20x faster and 10x cheaper than traditional hiring.

We can also work as an extension of your internal design team to improve your creative output or add adequate capacity during busy times and big projects, without the cost and commitment of hiring full-time.

Growth

Best for growing business that want to step up their design game and look like a big brand

Frequently Asked Questions

What are your turnaround times like?

Depending on the complexity of your request, you will get your designs and revisions within 2-7 days.

Larger, more complicated design requests or brands with complicated brand guidelines may add time to your design turnaround time.

Am I locked into a contract?

If you sign up for a monthly plan, you'll be billed monthly. If you sign up for an annual plan, you'll be billed annually.

You can upgrade, downgrade or cancel at any time and return at any time.

How does the monthly design plan work?

We're a subscription-based graphic design service.

For a flat monthly fee, you will benefit from a service that functions as your internal design team. We will work on all your graphic design requests, no questions asked.

How many design projects can you get done in a month?

On the Starter and Growth plans, we complete 5-20 projects in a given month, but this is heavily dependent on the size, scope, and complexity of your projects as well as the total number of changes and revisions you request.

To put this into context: A 1-page leaflet is quicker to lay out than a 50-page presentation.

Can I really make unlimited design requests?

For a flat monthly fee, you can create as many design projects in your dashboard and queue them up according to priority.

On the Starter plan, your designer will work on 1 active project at any given time. As soon as you approve a design, your next project will be made active.

What is the quality of the designs I will receive from you?

All our designers have agency backgrounds and have designed for the world's most established brands, so you are guaranteed to always receive professionally designed collaterals.

Our service model allows you to access agency designers at a fraction of the cost. This means that our plans are designed to be cost-effective, and any conceptual design is out of scope, although this is a service we can also provide. You can get the best from our monthly design plans when you have existing brand and creative guidelines. Although the lack of which won't stop us from delivering a polished output.

Brand, Logo & Identity

The visual identity of a successful brand is not sculpted by chance, but by intent. Every piece of branded collateral we create – whether it lives in the physical or in the virtual space – are designed to make an emotional impact and fortify your brand.

Corporate

No business is “too big to fail” and public opinion can have an exponential impact on its success

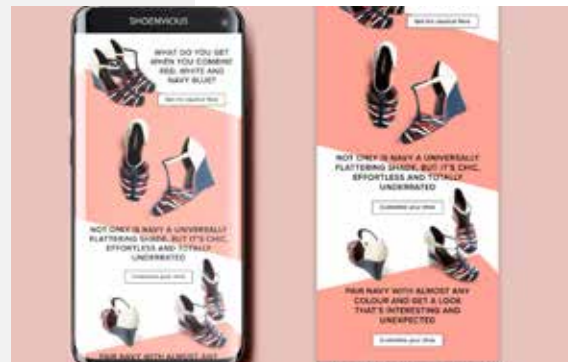

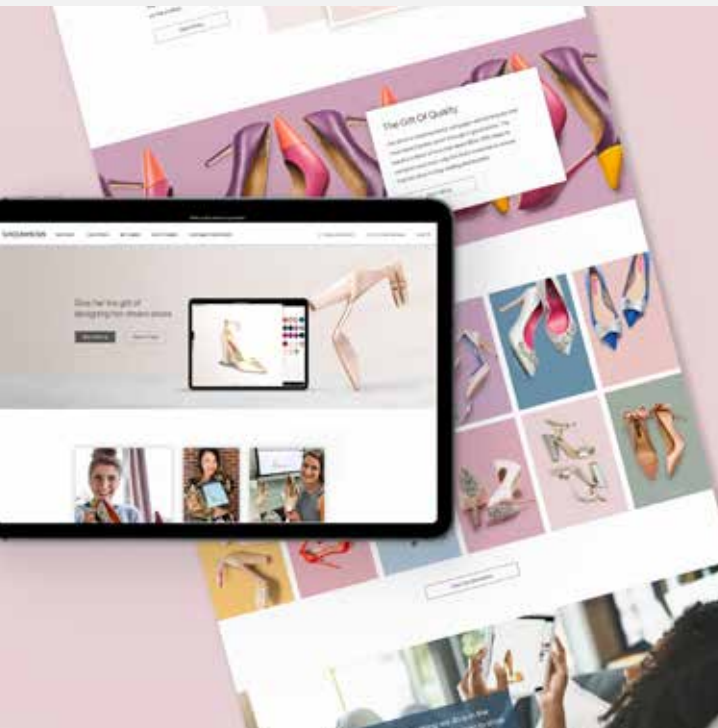

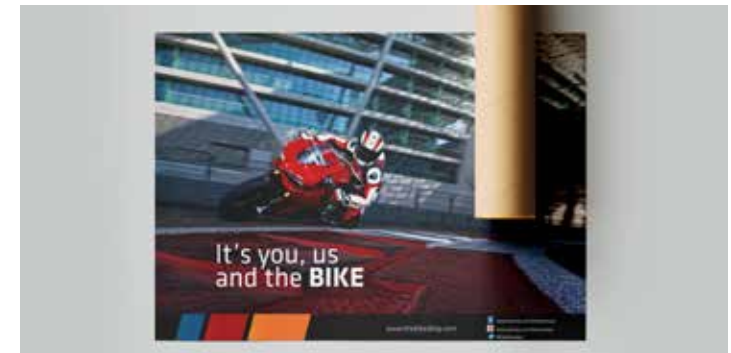

People now view brands and companies as if they were human, and, like any twenty-first century relationship, loyalties are shifted with the click of a mouse or the tap of an app. Businesses must be living examples for the values they promote.

Retail

How you present your brand must signal the value of your products, their usefulness and your credibility

All your customer touch points need to tie back to what your brand represents. Every time a consumer has an interaction with your business – in store, email, social media, your website – the experience has to evoke the same emotion. You hammer home the message when it's unified.

Designaphy has been instrumental in reducing our graphic design spend, and the quality of our collaterals only increased!

We were utterly delighted to come across Designaphy. From logo and branding to roll up banners, leaflets and all our marketing needs, they delivered exactly what we needed. We're really pleased to maintain the relationship as we grow.

Andy Pettitt - Owner

Sports & Recreation

The goal is to capture the nuances of the sport: suspense, precision, speed, control and risk

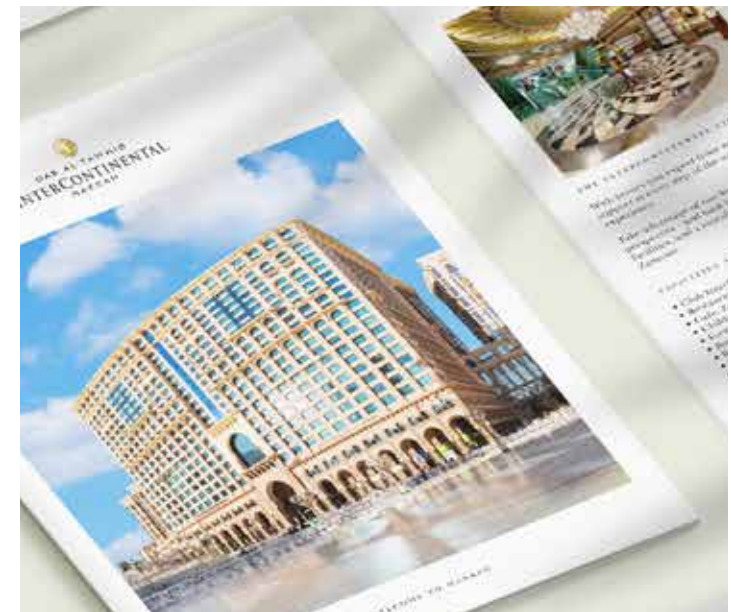

The real key to success is to create a brand identity that builds consistently throughout a spectator journey - until the action plays out, moments happen, and memories are made.

Travel & Hospitality

The hospitality industry is fiercely competitive, and in the battle to stand out, your brand is at the heart of your success

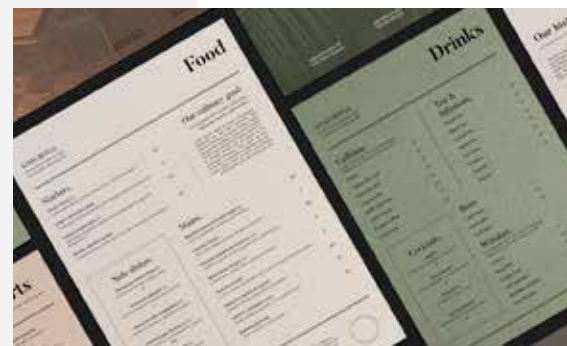

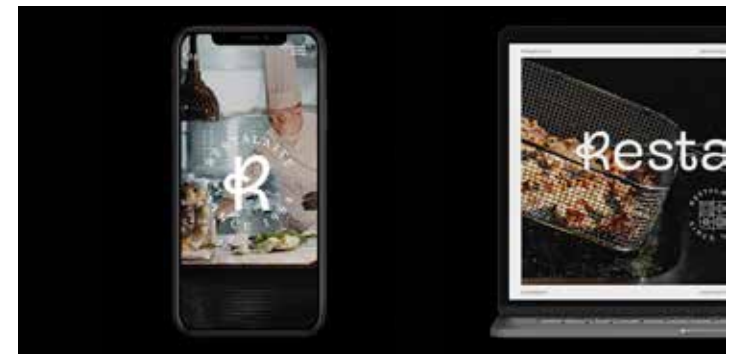

Your guests need a reason to choose to stay with you, and the brand you build needs to convey that to them. Your brand is what makes a guest's experience so meaningful that they'll share it often and come back for it time and again.

Food & Beverage

People don't buy food;
They buy an entire experience

Dining is a personal and emotional experience that relies on visuals to appeal to all senses. Great imagery and a compelling color palate go hand-in-hand with driving food sales and inspiring return visits. Visual branding must portray the emotional elements of the restaurant's culture and story.

Designaphy has really shown their commitment to help us achieve our marketing goals.

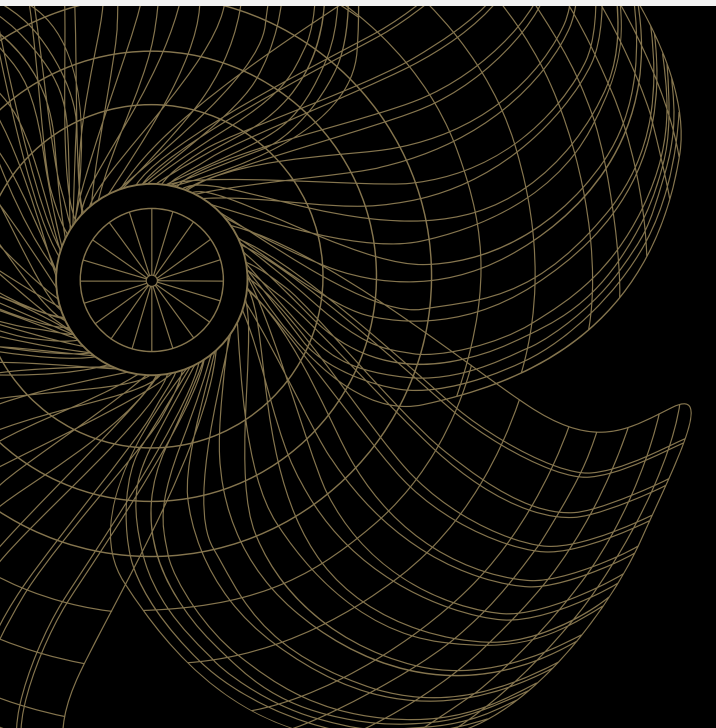

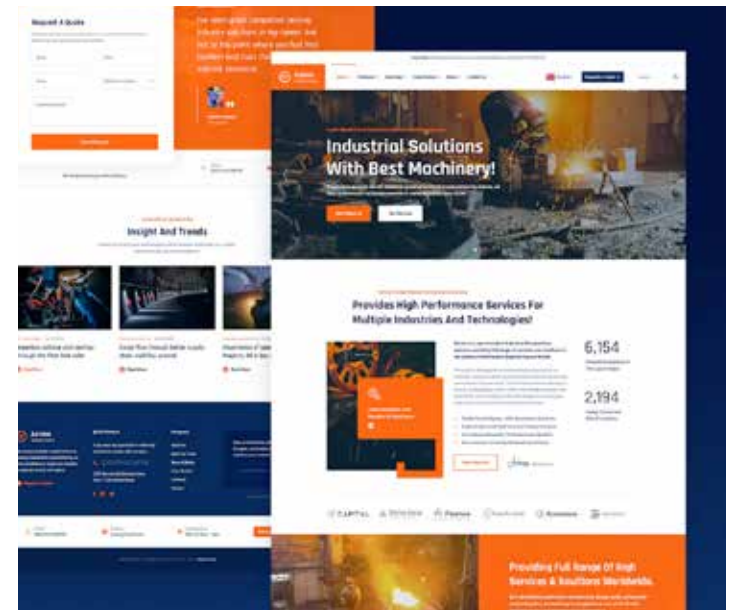

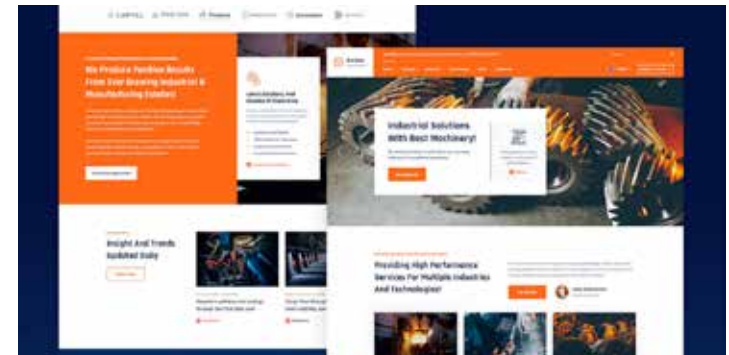

They've been my strategic design partners for over a year now. They make the process painless and simple. The team is highly responsive and proactive. I don't think I'll use another service again.

Victor Moore - Brand Manager

Manufacturing

A strong brand acts as the customer's 'shorthand' for making good choices in a complex and risky marketplace

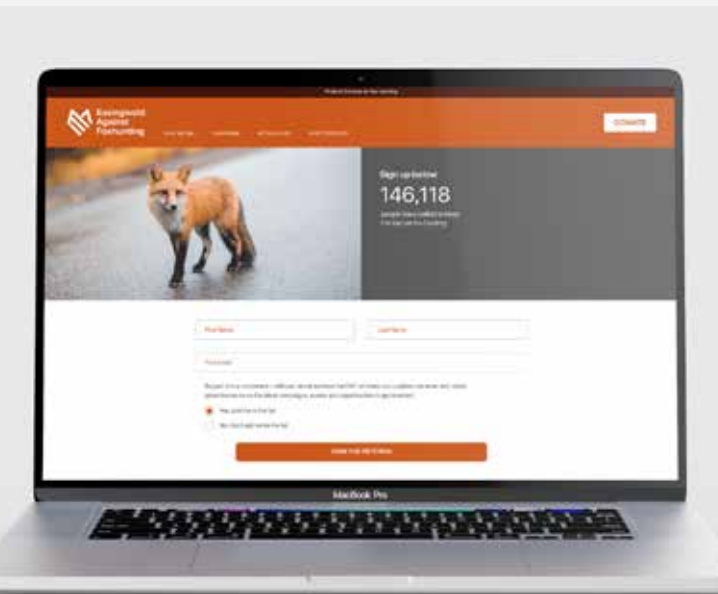

Your brand gives your business a clear, distinctive profile in the daily battles for profits and market share. Decision-makers are willing to pay a premium to do business with companies that have a solid brand reputation.

Non Profit

Branding your non-profit boils down to the visual and written way you communicate who you are and what you do

Branding shapes the way your organization's messages are received by the public. A strong brand not only helps you raise money, increase awareness, and build a reputation, but they help generate ambassadors, people who take pride in standing alongside your qualities and mission.

Designaphy has made us look like a multi-million-dollar brand without a single full-time graphic designer in our team.

We've worked with Designaphy since Day 1. They've developed our brand identity and our complicated online platform, and they designed all of our print and digital collateral. As a D2C brand in a highly competitive fashion space, it is very important that our design partners know how to identify, embrace, embody and articulate our brand purpose. And Designaphy delivers every single time.
